Welcome to Liberty Church

During this time of quarantine due to COVID-19, our order of worship is condensed and contains no music. We encourage you, however, to still sing in your own homes "psalms, hymns and spiritual songs, with gratitude in your hearts to God."

Announcements

Silent Reflection & Meditation - Psalms 75

Call to Worship & Invocation - Psalms 75:1

We give thanks to You, O God; we give thanks, for Your name is near. We recount your wondrous deeds.

Reading from the Confession - WCF 17.1

They whom God has accepted in His Beloved, effectually called and sanctified by His Spirit, can neither totally nor finally fall away from the state of grace, but shall certainly persevere therein to the end, and be eternally saved.

Scriptural Confession of Sin - Psalms 75:4-5

I say to the boastful, 'Do not boast,' and to the wicked, 'Do not lift up your horn; do not lift up your horn on high, or speak with a haughty neck.'"

Silent Confession

Assurance of Pardon - Psalms 75:9-10

But I will declare it forever; I will sing praises to the God of Jacob. All the horns of the wicked I will cut off, but the horns of the righteous shall be lifted up.

Reading of Scripture - Psalm 49

TO THE CHOIRMASTER. A PSALM OF THE SONS OF KORAH

Hear this, all peoples! Give ear, all inhabitants of the world, both low and high rich and poor together!

My mouth shall speak wisdom; the meditation of my heart shall be understanding. I will incline my ear to a proverb; I will solve my riddle to the music of the lyre. Why should I fear in times of trouble, when the iniquity of those who cheat me surrounds me, those who trust in their wealth and boast of the abundance of their riches? Truly no man can ransom another, or give to God the price of his life, for the ransom of their life is costly and can never suffice, that he should live on forever and never see the pit. For he sees that even the wise die; the fool and the stupid alike must perish and leave their wealth to others. Their graves are their homes forever, their dwelling places to all generations, though they called lands by their own names. Man in his pomp will not remain; he is like the beasts that perish. This is the path of those who have foolish confidence; yet after them people approve of their boasts. Selah Like sheep they are appointed for Sheol; death shall be their shepherd, and the upright shall rule over them in the morning. Their form shall be consumed in Sheol, with no place to dwell. But God will ransom my soul from the power of Sheol, for he will receive me. Selah Be not afraid when a man becomes rich, when the glory of his house increases. For when he dies he will carry nothing away; his glory will not go down after him. For though, while he lives, he counts himself blessed — and though you get praise when you do well for yourself — his soul will go to the generation of his fathers, who will never again see light. Man in his pomp yet without understanding is like the beasts that perish.
